Winner—Br. g. by Domino—Mere Hill.

Went to post at 2:15. At post 4 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second easily. Unmasked, after being under pressure to the stretch, displayed unusual gameness and finished strongly. May W., away in her stride, ran a high class race and with careful handling would have won. Ben Mac Deui showed the white feather when up against speed superior to his own. Lady Sterling went well throughout and would have been third in a few more strides. Mary Worth ran a good race, but was outclassed. Otis got off poorly and failed to stay in the last furlong. Belle of Troy closed a big gap.

Scratched—29125 St. Finnan, 134; (29080) Saddence, 118; 29126 Potente, 117; 28848 Paul Clifford, 116; (29104) The Amazon, 115; 29083 Roxane, 114; (29061) Oom Paul, 111; 29104 Lady of the Valley, 107; (29058) Baruchas, 95; 29125 Batyah, 87.

Unmasked, show, 5 to 1. May W., show, 3 to 1. Ben Mac Deui, show, 1 to 4.

29155 SECOND RACE—1 Mile and 70 Yards. $500 added. 3-year-olds and upward.

Winner—Br. g. by Barnes—Betty W.

Went to post at 2:45. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Trebor is in rare form and was best, easily went to the front on the stretch turn and won easily. Mercer finished strongly and is in the best form of his career. He favors mud. Fatalist appears to have grown stale quickly, is best when fresh and ran a game but unlucky race. Disturber ran well and is becoming good. Annie Thompson showed much speed for seven furlongs, but tired badly in the last furlong. Piederich got off poorly and sulked throughout.

Scratched—29123 Big Gun, 108; 29105 Astor, 99; 29173 Black Dick, 98. Trebor, show, 1 to 5. Mercer, show, 1 to 2. Fatalist, show, 3 to 5.

29156 THIRD RACE—5 1-2 Furlongs. $400 added. 2-year-olds. Maidens.

Winner—B. c. by Bain—Sister to Uncle Bob.

Went to post at 3:15. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Dewey was given a lucky start, wore down Early Eve, took an apparently winning lead in the stretch and ran a very speedy and game race. Early Eve has an amazing burst of speed and the early pace was the fastest run on this track. Geneseo was crowded out of position at the start and closed a tremendous gap and must be a good colt. Anak failed to stay at the end and prefers soft going. Sparklet made up ten lengths on the pacemaker and is a reported good one highly tried. Flying Buttress failed in the last quarter.

Scratched—29106 Connecticut, 112; 29106 Hindred, 112; 28649 Past, 109; 29106 Gaygirl, 109; 29106 Si Ah, 109; 29060 Lady Mac, 109.

Overweights—Major Daniels, 1 pound. Dewey, show, 6 to 5. Early Eve, show, 4 to 5. Geneseo, show, 5 to 1. Flying Buttress, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—B. c. by Wawekus—Hindoo gam.

Went to post at 3:45. At post 2 minutes. Start straggling. Won handily; second easily. Bowen gradually improved his position from a bad start and caught the pacemakers tiring in the last furlong and came away strongly under a clever ride. Sweet Tooth went after Royal Sterling, which had beat the gate and raced him to a standstill. The former should have won. Alard showed great improvement and finished strongly. Eloim went fairly well. Astor had no chance at the start and with his bad jockey. Royal Sterling went a fast three-quarters, but quit almost to a walk in the stretch.

Scratched—29081 Nitrate, 93. Bowen, show, 1 to 3. Sweet Tooth, show, 2 to 5. Alard, show, 6 to 5. Royal Sterling, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—Ch. g. by Kantaka—La Joya.

Went to post at 4:10. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Joy Maker, off poorly, closed a big gap, finished gamely and was best. Fonsoluca received a lucky start and ran a fast race and was probably a trifle short. Arrah Gowan maintained an even gait throughout and is a pronounced rater and stayer. Meistersinger hung on surprisingly well. Playlike was messed about. Tenagra quit unaccountably and ran a bad race. Athaola was closing up strongly at the end.

Scratched—29032 Bassie McCarthy, 109; 29125 G. Whittier, 108; 29032 Francesco, 106; 28759 Courtney, 102; 29031 Sunderlands, 99.

Winner—Ch. f. by Eothen—Mary K.

Went to post at 4:35. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second easily. Marotien beat the gate and barely lasted out from the fast coming Kingstelle. The latter had been bumped on the first turn and suffered from interference in the stretch. She should have won as the race was run but Surmise finishing like a whirlwind, after being nearly left and handled by an incompetent boy, must have been much the best. Kimberly was badly handled throughout and was probably short. He can do much better. Cherished was practically left and made up much ground.

Scratched—29123 Federalist, 102; 29123 Cresson, 97; 29109 Rivenoak, 94. Marotien, show, 1 to 2. Kingstelle, show, 6 to 5. Surmise, show, 5 to 1. Kimberly, show, 4 to 5.

LAKEVIEW RACING.

The attendance at Lakeside yesterday was as large as usual despite the first real touch of winter weather that prevailed throughout the day. There was a dearth of excitement to the finish, five out of the six races being won easily. The betting was comparatively brisk and heavy for a Monday gathering. The feature event of the day was the fourth, a dash of one and one sixteenth miles for all ages. Of the seven scheduled to start Omdurman was the only absentee. Searcher with Coburn in the saddle was made an overwhelming favorite, but he had to succumb to Miracle II., which carried but 74 pounds. He was held at 4 to 1 in the betting and was generously backed by the talent. Little Knapp, who rode Henry of Trastamara to victory last Saturday, had the mount. Off to a good start Miracle II. at once took command, closely attended by Searcher. The former held his advantage by a length clear up to the turn for home, but many thought that as long as Searcher could stay up that close to the youngster for the first seven furlongs he would surely outrun him in the stretch. Such was not the case, however, as when Miracle II. got well straightened for home he kept gradually moving away from Searcher, finally winning with consummate ease by three lengths while Searcher beat Valdez six for second place. The Boer and Pay the Fiddler showed well until in the last quarter, where both fell away beaten. Santa Teresa ran a dull race and was virtually beaten off after the first half had been run.

The first race, a dash of five and a half furlongs for maiden two-year-olds, proved an easy thing for the long overdue Inspector Shea. As good as 4 to 1 could be had against him in the ring. After Ashbrook and The Stewardess had run themselves into exhaustion Inspector Shea, which had always laid within easy call of them came away without much of an effort in the last eighth and won in a canter by four lengths. Although The Stewardess was firing fast at the end she had enough left to beat out Dulcimer a length for second place. Ashbrook quit and fell back when a furlong out. Crescent City ran well for five furlongs.

If You Dare, sadly overlooked by the talent, was much the best in the second race, a dash of five and a half furlongs. Kentucky, on the strength of his last good showing, was made an even money favorite, but ran an indifferent race, failing to show inside of the money. If You Dare, with Little Jack Horner lapped on, showed the way to the final quarter, where the latter was beaten, the former moving gradually away from his field and winning easily by two and a half lengths. Sea Queen came fast in the last eighth, getting second place easily by a length and a half from Lennep. The latter was well backed by the sharpshooters at 3 to 1, but ran an indifferent race, being outrun from start to finish. Kentucky showed well for a half mile and then gradually fell away beaten.

Free Pass had little trouble in winning the third race, a dash once around the circle. Always well up for the first six furlongs he was not called upon until well into the last quarter, where he came away with ease winning by five lengths from Lord Roberts, which beat B. G. Fox a head for second place. B. G. Fox, all entangled at the start, made up ground rapidly after the first quarter had been run. He finished fast and would have been second in another stride. Evelyn Byrd had enough after running seven furlongs. Red Apple showed early speed.

Eva Rice, which is good just now, took the fifth race in a mild drive from Linden Ella by a length. She led by a big margin up to the final sixteenth, where she began to tire, but had enough left to stall off Linden Ella's bid in the closing strides. The latter beat Baird three lengths for second place. Sam Lazarus Esq. ran well for six furlongs.

The last race was the most exciting of the day's sport, Rosa Diah, Cora Havill II. and Zack Phelps passing under the wire heads apart in the order named. First Zacatoco and then Cora Havill II. took the lead, the latter holding it until the last sixteenth where at least six of the field closed up on her. Rosa Diah, next to the inside rail, finished stoutly, but Cora Havill II. was well spent in the last fifty yards and would have lost second place in another stride to Zack Phelps. The latter was much the best. He was the victim of a bad ride, Hope taking him in and out all over the track while coming down the backstretch. The horse made up much ground in the last quarter and was running past horses at the end. Automaton ran well for six furlongs.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

T. Pollock, Chicago. The bookmaker having taken a bet on Rolling Boer and Hermencia coupled is bound to pay. The scratching of Rolling Boer left Hermencia to run for the entry and that was sufficient to make it a valid bet. Ownership cuts no figure in this case. If Rolling Boer had started he would have been coupled in the betting with Hermencia. The odds would have been smaller, however, with both horses starting and the bookmaker has a right to take that fact into consideration and settle accordingly.

Half a dozen yearlings by Falsetto and Henry Young, consisting of four colts and two fillies, have been sold to R. L. Baker of Lexington by Lum Simons; three of the colts and one filly are by Falsetto. In the lot is a full brother to Flywheel. J. C. Milan has purchased of Milton Young, two yearlings by Tronbadour and Pirate of Penzance.

It was reported at Aqueduct Saturday that W. C. Whitney's noted filly, Blue Girl, is seriously afflicted with some sort of illness.

All of J. B. Haggin's horses, who were trained by Peter Wimmer, have been turned over to C. Littlefield, Jr. Wimmer has engaged to train for W. H. Laudeman.

Special--Today--Special

At Lakeside we have a mortal cinch. The odds will be at least 6 to 1. We advise all of our old clients to call and get in on this good thing. There never was anything more certain in a horse race. Four of our five specials won yesterday:

FREE PASS, EVA RICE, INSPECTOR SHEA AND FLOP.

Beginning Nov. 16 we will get direct information by special wire from the California tracks daily. In the meantime we will have selections on Latonia and Bannings races.

$3.00 Weekly. Wired at 10 a.m.

FIRST RACE EXTRA SPECIAL GOOD THING 4 TO 1. PLUNGE THE LIMIT

This horse is entered in a soft spot and the only way for him to get beaten is to fall down.

WE ADVISE YOU TO PLUNGE THE LIMIT ON THIS ONE.

Whether you play five dollars ($5) or five hundred ($500). Then take your winnings and what you have besides and plunge on our good thing in the SECOND RACE. This one will win just as easily as the one in the first race.

IF YOU DO AS WE ADVISE YOU WILL BE A BIG WINNER TUESDAY.

READY AT 9 A. M.

Winner—Ch. g. by Apache—My Badge.
Went to post at 3:05. Off at the first break to an excellent start. Won easily; second driving. Free Pass moved up fast just before turning for home and assuming an easy lead in the last eighth won as her rider pleased. Lord Roberts came fast at the end, but had no chance to beat the winner. B. G. Fox ran a good race, finished strongly and would have beaten Lord Roberts for second place in another stride. Evelyn Byrd tired and quit when a furlong out. Red Apple ran well for six furlongs. Miss Conrad and Nyx showed early speed. The winner was run up to $800 and bought by Lockart Bros.

Winner—Ch. g. by Miracle—Annie L., by Startle.
Went to post at 3:30. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second the same. Miracle II. with his light impost held a safe lead up to the last eighth where he came away from his field and won easily. Searcher lay up until just after turning for home where he began to show signs of distress. He was easily the best of the others. Valdez finished fast through the last eighth and showed improvement. Pay the Fiddler gradually fell away beaten in the last quarter. The Boer tired badly just after swinging for home. Santa Teresa was never a contender.
Scratched—29120 Omdurman, 105.

Winner—Ch. m. by Masotto—Miss Rye.
Went to post at 4:00. Off at the first break to a good start. Won in a mild drive; second easily. Eva Rice rushed into the lead after the first quarter had been run and held an easy command up to the final sixteenth where she began to tire slightly, but had enough left to win in a mild drive. Linden Ella finished fast through the last eighth. Baird showed improvement over his last effort and closed up some ground in the last quarter. Charley Moore hardly ran his race. Star Cotton ran well for a little over six furlongs. Sam Lazarus Esq. is rounding to and bears watching from now on.

Winner—Ch. f. by Belvidere—Rose.
Went to post at 4:25. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Rosa Diah finished strongly and got up in time to win on the post. Cora Havill II. was tiring at the close and would have lost second place in another stride. Zack Phelps was the best but was ridden all over the track. He finished with a rush on his own courage after making up much ground in the last quarter. Woodstick hung when the pinch came. Farmer Bennett closed up ground in the last quarter. Zacatoso and Automaton, well up for six furlongs, tired rapidly when the drive came.
Scratched—28271 Golden Link, 110.

Winner—B. c. by The Chevalier—Delahiah.
Went to post at 2:15. At post 15 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Guerdon was much the best of a bad field and was never in trouble. Reeper closed up fast in the stretch. Margaret Ellen ran a fairly good race. Assassin tired at the finish. The field turned wide into the stretch to get to the dry going. Water Plant showed early speed. Oscar acted badly at the post. The Oriole's bridle slipped at the start and she threw her rider.

Scratched—29072 Dr. S. C. Ayers, 104.
Overweights—Guerdon, 1 pound; Reeper, 14; Socapa, 5; Meggs, 5; Oscar, 2.

Winner—Br. f. by Pirate of Pensance—English Lady.
Went to post at 2:32. Off at the first break. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Mamie English was much the best in the going. Lady Brockway and Myrtle Dell fought it out hard through the last quarter, the former staying best. Lathrop closed quite a gap in the stretch. Mollie T. tired badly. The Boston finished stoutly next to the inner rail in the deepest going. All the fields swung wide into the stretch in all the races today.

Scratched—Shady Land, 100; 29096 Pirate Girl, 100; 29058 Throstle, 100.

Winner—Ch. m. by Candelmas—My Own.
Went to post at 2:50. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Eleanor Holmes is easily the best jumper that has shown here. She cleared the obstacles cleanly, showed plenty of speed and liked the mud. Sauber did well and was eased up at the finish. Jim Blackburn was taken the longest way and was also eased up at the end. The others were beaten off. Fallella refused after the second jump. Little John fell at the second jump.

Overweights—Miss Soak, 14 pounds; Manheim, 34.

Winner—Ch. g. by Bona Schoenfeld—Adeline.
Went to post at 3:45. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Pretty Rosie was at home in the going, ran a good race and came away at the end as his rider pleased. Barbree was easily the best of those behind him today. Charley Shane closed a big gap in the last quarter. Woodtrice started to move up after passing the half mile ground and caught the leaders but he stopped as if shot in the stretch. His running is not consistent.

Scratched—29115 Dr. Fannie, 104; 29112 King Elkwood, 97; 29112 Deloraine, 96; 29113 Nelsie Morris, 96.

Time, 24, 49, 1:41.
 Winner—B. f. by Calvados—Katrinka.
 Went to post at 4:27. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Coming Event finished strongly under a good ride and ran to her best form. Princess Titania was knocked about in the first half mile, but finished very strongly and would have won in a few more strides. Nona B. did her best and was admirably ridden. Clarando showed early speed, but quit badly.
 Scratched—5264 Decapo, 113; 25939 Flemaro, 107; 26048 Catherine Bravo, 99.
 Coming Event, show, evens. Princess Titania, show, out. Nona B., show, 8 to 5. Saul of Tarsus, show, 1 to 2.

 Winner—B. f. by Tremont—Margo.
 Went to post at 2:22. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Tremar was much the best, had things her own way throughout and at the won eased up. Miss Guido ran to her mark and had no mishaps. Ragnarok II. ran in much improved form and hung on gamely under punishment. Miss Aubrey made her usual bluff. Prima II. was practically left at the post and met with much interference in the stretch. She was also cut down. Young Henry ran far below his mark.
 Scratched—28554 Blonde Grayson, 99.
 Miss Guido, show, 4 to 5. Ragnarok II., show, 20 to 1. Prima II., show, out.

 Winner—B. f. by Ingoldeby—Maggie Moore.
 Went to post at 2:52. At post 11 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Lillian M. was lucky in avoiding interference and under clever handling won going away with much in reserve. Fugurtha was under pressure all the way and stood punishment gamely. Trio was pulled up at the start, the rider not thinking it was a go. He ran a winning race. Badger showed improvement. Edna Kenner will improve from this race. Tristram was short.
 Scratched—29136 De Milsom, 107.
 Lillian M., show, out. Fugurtha, show, 1 to 2. Trio, show, out. Tristram, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. g. by Goldstone—Ali Lillac.
 Went to post at 3:23. At post 4 minutes. Start bad. Won driving and all out; second the same. Alalia showed the most speed, but lost ground when turning into the stretch. Inuendo saved ground, but weakened at the end when he appeared all over a winner. Mandamus was badly messed about. It was a bad field.
 Scratched—28262 Alvin W., 110.

Time, 25, 50, 1:18.
 Winner—Ch. c. by Wagner—Marchma.
 Went to post at 3:45. At post 8 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second easily. Louis Wagner showed the most speed and won as Beauchamp elected. The judges, however, placed Chantarelle first and after a long delay reversed their decision. Chantarelle was favored by the start. She broke flying a couple of lengths in front of her field but Louis Wagner raced her to a standstill in the first half. She stumbled in a false breakaway, unseated her rider and ran three-eighths before being recaptured. Florie S. showed improvement. Leflare ran poorly.
 Chantarelle, show, out. Florie S., show, 4 to 5. Leflare, show, out.

Time, 25, 51, 1:19, 1:32.
 Winner—B. c. by Badge—Carline.
 Went to post at 4:24. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second driving. Bigger was much the best and had to be to win. He had the worst of the sendoff and was badly ridden. Dynasty hung on gamely under punishment and ran a good race. Omelia had bad racing luck, being sharply cut off at the half-mile ground. Staff had much the best of the start and her jockey took advantage of this, but she tired badly. Little Rita ran impressively.
 Bigger, show, 6 to 1. Dynasty, show, 4 to 5. Omelia, show, out. Staff, show, 1 to 2. Quaver, show, 3 to 5.
